Gentlemen:

We have this day had the pleasure of opening a checking account for Mr. Charles H. Hess of 55 West 110th Street, who has given your name as reference.

We have enclosed a specimen signature of Mr. Hess which we would thank you to verify and return to us. Any information that you can give us regarding the responsibility and integrity of Mr. Hess will be appreciated.

Your courtesy in this matter will be reciprocated with pleasure at any opportunity.

Very truly yours,

Walter Schepeler,
Manager.

Gentlemen:

I have known Mr. Hess for several years, as he is a member of the Numismatic Club that I belong to and is also a member of our organization. I have had very little business dealings with him but have never heard of anything against his integrity or responsibility.

Very truly yours,

HW:JG
